You Did It!

Thanks to the generosity of our donors we met our $10,000 match and went beyond to support our mission at Mary Wade through the 2022 Trustee Challenge! We look forward to reporting to you the exact total soon.

Thank You!

Because of all the wonderful donors, volunteers and shoppers we were able to raise over $2,640 at Mary Wade's Holiday Bazaar. Proceeds will directly benefit our residents through the Resident Enrichment Fund. This fund provides so many positive activities, tools and events for our residents and it is all thanks to you!

Congratulations Mike O'Brien

Please join us in congratulating Mike O'Brien, Vice President of Chatham Place at Mary Wade, for receiving the Board Chair Award at Connecticut's Assisted Living Association's (CALA) 27th Annual Awards Dinner. Mike is dedicated to providing an exceptional venue for seniors to reside, with competent staff who are committed to a nonprofit mission of service, and is a friend and resource to residents and family. He brings forty years of senior executive leadership experience in senior care and acute care settings with demonstrated
