Spring Ahead

Daylight Savings Time begins on Sunday, March 8 so don't forget to change your clock ahead one hour before you go to bed Saturday evening. We might lose an hour of sleep and wake up a little groggier, but sunnier evenings and the sweet smell of spring in the air makes it worth it.

Kimberly Family Meetings

The next Mary Wade Kimberly Family Meeting will be held Thursday, March 12 at 5:30pm in the Community Room.

This month, we are honored to welcome Maria Tomasetti to discuss the critical topic of dementia. As the former South Central Regional Director for the Alzheimer's Association Connecticut Chapter and School visited to deliver stuffed animals and handmade cards to every resident and client. Click HERE to see Laura Hutchinson from WTNH News8 cover these precious moments.

Let's Get Creative

Ever wanted to try your hand at pottery? Now is your chance! Join us on March 29 from 2-3p, in the Harold S. Spitzer Activity Room of Chatham Place for a unique, hands-on workshop. We are thrilled to welcome artist Maria Gold, who will be joining us live from her studio. She'll demonstrate her signature techniques and provide step-by-step guidance as you create your very own pottery masterpiece. Whether you're a seasoned creator or have never touched clay, this class is for you. No prior experience is required and cost is only $22 per person. Click HERE to register.

Spring Plant Sale

a current dedicated volunteer, Maria brings 17 years of professional experience and a unique personal perspective as a former family caregiver. We look forward to gaining from her deep expertise.

George The Music Man

If you hear a familiar tune drifting through our halls, chances are you've found George, Mary Wade's very own "Music Man." Known to many as the Mary Wade Elvis, George has a passion for making people smile through song. His repertoire is truly endless: if you name it, he can play it! Help us keep the music going by giving George your requests when you see him on campus.

Chatham Place Doors

A friendly reminder that the front doors at Chatham Place will be locked nightly at 8:30pm for added peace of mind. We still welcome visitors at any time. If you arrive after 8:30pm,
